PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, swine production in South Dakota constitutes 20% of its total agricultural income; and

WHEREAS, this state appreciates the effort of the South Dakota Hampshire Swine Breeder's Association in bringing to South Dakota one of the greatest educational features that any swine breed has brought, the 18th National Hampshire Meat-Hog Conference; and

WHEREAS, it is desirable that encouragement be given to other South Dakota swine breeder associations to bring their national type conference to South Dakota;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JOE FOSS, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby declare the week of July 29 - August 4, 1956, as for the principal purpose of honoring the national type conference being held at Sioux Falls, South Dakota, on July 29, 30, and 31, and I do urge that all concerned accord this occasion close attention and full cooperation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 16th day of July, 1956.
